First, I would like to thank the Almighty for getting the opportunity to be a part of this project. Next, I would like to thank my family for the constant support and encouragement. My parents have always been my role model, my wife a source of constant strength and my daughters are my happiness. Without whole-hearted support from my family, I would not have got the luxury of time to spend on hours in writing the book. Any amount of thanks will fell short to express my gratitude and pleasure of being part of the family.
